

Irena Janiashvili

- Art-project for 3-6 y.o.

Irena graduated from Georgian Technical University with a Master's in Architecture, Architecture (Tbilisi, Georgia). Presently, she works as an Architect and is an owner at the Integrity Architecture, LLC. Irena resides in Fishers with her husband Sandro Akhvlediani.

Irena has been teaching our younger beginners to work with various art media. She is also a very accomplished at Crocheting (her Sunflower Afghan pattern design is very popular among crochet community) and she is happily sharing her talent in her new Crafts class.